

AUMAN, ANN ELIZABETH

CURRICULUM VITAE
ANN ELIZABETH AUMAN
July 2016

Professor and Chairman
School of Communications
University of Hawai`i-Mānoa
2550 Campus Rd., Rm. 321
Honolulu, HI 96822

Email: auman@hawaii.edu
Office Tel: 808-956-2723
Office Fax: 808-956-5396

EDUCATION

PhD Political Science, University of Hawai`i-Mānoa, 2004.
MBA University of Toronto
MA Asian Studies, University of Hawai`i-Mānoa
Also earned Pacific Asian Management Institute Certificate
East-West Center Communications Institute Grantee, 1980-1982
BA, Honors, Chinese Studies, University of Toronto
Mandarin Training Center, Taiwan Normal University in Taipei
First-year liberal arts, Northwestern University, Illinois, dean's list of scholastic excellence

FIELDS OF SPECIALIZATION

Media ethics, media and news literacy in a cultural context, race, ethnicity and local identity in Hawai`i, media in China.

Academic Appointments

Chairman, School of Communications, University of Hawai`i-Mānoa, 2013- 2016
Professor, 2008-present
Associate Professor, (tenured), 1996-2008, School of Communications.
Assistant Professor, Journalism Department, 1991-1996
Lecturer in newswriting, Journalism Department, spring 1991.
Guest lecturer, Journalism Department, 1987 & 1988
Graduate faculty 2002-present

Director, Carol Burnett Fund for Responsible Journalism (UH), 2012-present
Center for News Literacy Fellow, Stony Brook University, July 2011 & 2013
Poynter Institute for Media Studies Teaching Fellowship 1993.
Freedom Forum/AEJMC Fellow, Indiana University, 1993.
Educator-in-Residence. University of Tennessee-Chattanooga, 1995

Undergraduate Chair, Journalism program

Courses taught*

- JOUR 150: Media & Society (news literacy).

